Day 3: Sunday August 8, 2021 Depart Bergen for “Norway in a Nutshell” (B, D) – to Stalheim

After breakfast, depart Bergen and enjoy the drive along Sörfjord, past towns and villages to Voss. Catch the train in Voss and travel up the Raundalen Valley with high mountains on both sides to Myrdal – a little station in the “wild” mountains.

Disembark and walk across the platform and board the Flåm Railway train for a most spectacular journey down the Flåm valley with impressive views at all angles. The Flåm railway is one of the steepest railway lines in the world, with 80% of the journey having a gradient of 5.5%. The train will make a stop at the Kjosfossen waterfall where the passengers can get off to admire the cascading water.

Upon arrival in the small village of Flåm, board a boat for a 2 hour scenic cruise through the dramatic Aurlandfjord and Nærøyfjord (listed as a UNESCO World Heritage Site) to Gudvangen.

Hotel: Upon arrival in Gudvangen, the private motor coach will pick you up and take you to Stalheim Hotel for check in.

Dinner: at hotel.

Day 4: Monday August 9, 2021 Stalheim (B, D)

After breakfast start driving down Stalheims kleiva 13 hairpin turns once considered the steepest main highway in Europe. Stalheims kleiva is today one way down only. Drive on highway E16 towards Gudvangen and then continue past Flåm continue driving on Highway E16 towards Lærdal. Once through Lærdals tunellen, continue on Highway E16 east to Borgund and see the Borgund Stavkirke. Borgund Stavkirke is replicated in the 50 year old Chapel in the Hills in Rapid City South Dakota. A visit here would cause you to backtrack a little. After the visit at Borgund Stavkirke, drive back through the Lærdals tunellen to Aurland for a possible trip Stegastein viewpoing. After the viewpoint, continue on Highway E16 to Flåm and eventually Gudvangen. Half way between Flåm and Gudvangen you could take road 601 for just a short trip to Undredalen and see the Undredalen Stavkirke.

Note: If time permits in Gudvangen, optional visit to the very interesting new Viking Valley – especially interesting for the young ones. During the time you will be there, there will be about 250 “Vikings” on site. See: www.vikingvalley.no.

Return to Stalheim Hotel or the evening. Dinner at hotel.
